Lest We Forget

Elkhorn held its Remembrance Day Service and it was a wonderful tribute to honour our veterans and current enlisted personnel. We had the privilege of having Major Chris Spearin from the Royal Canadian Air Force speak to our students, staff and parents. He provided us with a clear understanding of all the amazing work Canada does helping others around the world. A special thank you goes to Ms. Dawe and all of our student participants for all of their hard work.

A reminder that Progress Reports are going home on November 15th. Interviews will be held on Thursday starting after school and Friday morning until lunch time.

Please keep our students safe and ensure that you are abiding by the drop off and pick up rules at Elkhorn. This also includes not having adults in the hallways when dropping off students instead of waiting outside.

Have a wonderful fall weekend.

Speaker and Author Jennifer Kolari's inspirational address – being the parent of “that child” – will provide families with a few more tools for their toolbox that can help your child learn to be part of the team at home, at school and out in the community. By helping your child to understand the context of their behaviour they will learn better coping strategies and build success and resilience.
