

Act – What will our Learning Experience at Forest Valley Look Like?

Each field trip to Forest Valley is designed to be a complete Inquiry Learning Cycle that can integrate with previous learning and ignite further learning back at school.

This Inquiry Learning Cycle is based on the inquiry processes found in the Kindergarten Curriculum \(p. 15\), Social Studies 1-6, History and Geography 7 and 8 \(p. 22\) and Science and Technology 1-8 \(p. 12-18\), The Creative Process Arts \(pp. 19-22\), Achievement Criteria Language \(pp. 17-18\) and the Problem Solving Model Mathematics \(pp. 12-13\).

People and Their Environment (*activities will vary depending on weather, class readiness and availability)

- 1. Get me interested- *Engagement- Formulate Questions
 - Introduce students to a map of Forest Valley in relation to how the Don River flows through our city
 - Ask the framing question: How does the natural environment affect how we meet our needs?

- 2. Let me explore- *Exploration- Gather and Organize
 - Using maps and basic camping equipment, explore how to meet human needs of shelter, fire, water, and food

- 3. Give me a chance to apply my learning- *Investigation- Interpret and Analyse
 - Apply the learning about people's needs and the environment to a cooperative game
 - Compare and contrast meeting our needs at Forest Valley, at home and in other parts of the world

- 4. Let me talk about my learning- *Debrief- Evaluate and Draw Conclusions
Let me plan what I want to learn next- Communicate

For more information on inquiry learning from the Literacy and Numeracy Secretariat please read these monographs from the Capacity Building Series:

Inquiry Based Learning

Getting Started With Student Inquiry