

IPS INSPIRATIONAL MATH DAYS KICK-OFF & INTRODUCTION TO DAY TWO

Day 2 begins with explaining that mistakes are powerful! The kick-off video called “Try Everything” from the movie Zootopia further reinforced this message to all students.

- Click on the link and check it out:

<http://www.bing.com/videos/search?q=try+everything&qvpt=try+everything&view=detail&mid=E8357E108A78EC9ADC85E8357E108A78EC9ADC85&FORM=VRDGAR>

WIM Day 2 Overview & Video – Mistakes are Beautiful Things

Day 2 begins with a film explaining that mistakes are powerful!

Mistakes are Powerful-SD.mp4

Click on link to watch video!

Kindergarten to Grade 2

- This lesson gives students the opportunities to see numbers, to consider how numbers are made up, and to engage with numbers flexibly. Some students can also start to think about factors and multiples.

Grade 3 to 6

- In this lesson the activity is open and gives space for students to learn about representing in a graph with different dimensions but without numbers.