Meet Aimee, a young cancer survivor, because of your help

Thanks to Terry Fox and generous Terry Foxers like you, I have my leg and I have my life.

In 2010, at age 11, I was diagnosed with Osteosarcoma, the same cancer as Terry, after my leg shattered on the soccer field. My world collapsed in an instant but thanks to Terry the course of cancer is changing, giving me the chance to rebuild. He ran to raise money for research, hoping that it would provide new treatments to reduce the painful effects of cancer and lead to a cure.

In Terry's day I would have lost my leg and probably my life. Today, thanks to his vision, I have hope. I have my leg. I have my life. Terry's dream is now my dream: a cure for all cancers. I urge you to join my dream and fundraise for cancer research today.

Aimee

Hey Terry Foxer, did you know...

1) You are one of 3,000,000 students across Canada raising money for Terry Fox this year.

2) Terry's best friend, and the driver of the Marathon of Hope van, Doug Alward used a bucket to collect money. Today, you can use your computer and even your cell phone to raise funds.

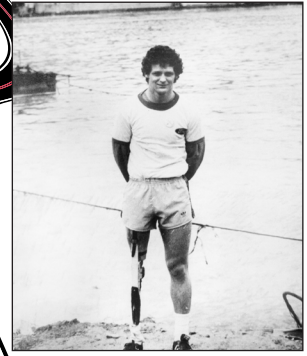

3) Terry had bone cancer but the funds you raise will help people with all types of cancers, including breast, lung, brain, prostate and many more.

St John's, NL - April 12:

Terry Fox dips his artificial leg into the Atlantic Ocean and sets out on his Marathon of Hope.

Dartmouth, NS - May 20:

"I ran to the vocational school here with 50 students. They raised about $3,000. What a great group of kids! Too bad not everybody was doing that."

Bristol, NB - June 6:

"The first few miles were the usual torture. My foot was blistered bad, but my stump wasn't too bad. Today I had tremendous support. Everybody honked and waved. People all over looked out of their homes and stores and cheered me on."

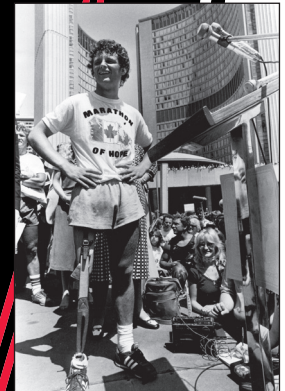

Highway 185, QC - June 11:

"The wind howled again all day. Right in my face. It was very difficult constantly running into the wind. It zaps it right out of your body and head."

Toronto, ON - July 11:

Terry meets his hockey idol Darryl Sittler in front of thousands of people in downtown Toronto. Sittler said, "I've been around athletes a long time and I've never seen any with his courage and stamina."

Thunder Bay, ON - around Sept 1:

"That's the thing about cancer. I'm not the only one, it happens all the time to people. I'm not special. This just intensifies what I did. It gives it more meaning. It'll inspire more people. I just wish people would realize that anything's possible if you try. When I started this Run, I said that if we all gave one dollar, we'd have $24 million for cancer research, and I don't care, man, there's no reason that isn't possible. No reason."
