COURSE DESCRIPTION

This course emphasizes knowledge and skills that will enable students to understand media communication in the twenty-first century and to use media effectively and responsibly. Through analysing the forms and messages of a variety of media works and audience responses to them, and through creating their own media works, students will develop critical thinking skills, aesthetic and ethical judgement, and skills in viewing, representing, listening, speaking, reading, and writing.

ASSESSMENT & EVALUATION

Assessment and evaluation will be based on provincial curriculum expectations as outlined in the Ontario English curriculum documents. Teachers will use their professional judgement to determine which specific expectations should be used to evaluate achievement of the overall expectations. Student success on meeting curriculum expectations will be assessed by the course teacher through the use of a variety of teaching strategies and assessment tools - diagnostic, formative and summative - throughout the course. This may range from traditional paper and pencil assessments to assessments based on student choice and creation. A final grade will be reported for the course on the Provincial Report Card, and a credit will be granted if a student's grade is 50% or higher. Students who earn a grade of 70-79% (level 3) represent the "provincial standard" for achievement of the expectations in the course and are prepared for work in subsequent courses.

OVERALL COURSE EXPECTATIONS

By the end of the course, students will...

1. demonstrate understanding of a variety of media texts; and deconstruct a variety of types of media texts, identifying the codes, conventions, and techniques used and explaining how they create meaning.
2. analyse and critique media representations of people, issues, values, and behaviours; and analyse and evaluate the impact of media on society.
3. demonstrate an understanding of the ways in which the creators of media texts target and attract audiences; and demonstrate an understanding of the impact of regulation, ownership, and control on access, choice, and range of expression.
4. create a variety of media texts for different audiences and purposes, using effective forms, codes, conventions, and techniques; demonstrate an understanding of roles and career options in a variety of media industries; and demonstrate an understanding of their growth as media consumers, media analysts, and media producers.

ENGLISH DEPARTMENT POLICIES & EXPECTATIONS

1. Success in the English classroom is dependent on class attendance. Students are expected to attend all classes on time, with all required materials. Success is also dependent on reading outside of the classroom. Students are expected to read required texts during their independent time.
2. As part of our commitment to becoming an eco-friendly department we are reducing the amount of paper waste produced in our classrooms. Student resources will primarily be made available in digital formats. Paper resources can be provided upon request or based on student need. Students are responsible for any electronics brought to class and should use all technology in a manner that is appropriate for their task. They should also adhere to the TDSB's Online Code of Conduct found in the student agenda.
3. Meeting assignment deadlines is a necessary part of progressing through an English course. Late assignments are discouraged and will only be accepted up to one week after the official deadline. Students are responsible for speaking to their teacher prior to missing a deadline. Alternate deadlines may be provided on a one-to-one basis, on consultation with the teacher.
4. Test and presentation dates are final. Students are responsible for contacting their teacher prior to a test or presentation if there are any concerns. Students who miss a test or presentation should provide documentation from a doctor, parent or guardian upon return to class. Any missed tests or presentations with proper documentation will be rescheduled or substituted with the teacher's discretion.
5. All written assignments will be run through Turnitin.com upon submission to Google Classroom or Brightspace for plagiarism and AI detection. Any submissions unable to be submitted to Turnitin.com may result in a grade of 0%. Any submissions that are flagged by Turnitin.com may be subject to further review by a member of staff.
6. Academy honesty is required from all students within the English department. All work submitted by students must demonstrate the student's own skills. Students should not submit work that has been created by other people, that has been altered by a translator, or that is written in conjunction with A. I. technology. Students are required to use proper MLA citations for all secondary sources. Any suspicions of academic dishonesty are subject to further review by a member of staff. Plagiarism of any aspect of an assignment will result in a variety of consequences, including a possible grade of 0% on the assignment.
7. Culminating project checkpoints and deadlines are final. Students are expected to adhere to these deadlines unless documentation is provided and consultation with the teacher has occurred. Failure to submit all parts of a project or to meet the deadline may result in a grade of 0%.
8. Exam schedules are final. Students will not be allowed to write an exam outside of the scheduled exam period. Missed exams will result in a mark of 0 unless proper documentation is provided to the teacher or to an administrator within 24 hours of the exam.
9. Credit rescue opportunities are not mandatory and are at the discretion of the individual teacher. Completing credit rescue does not guarantee that a credit will be granted. Students who do not demonstrate learning and understanding of the curriculum expectations across the entirety of the course will not be granted a credit.
