Course Description

This course is designed to extend the range of oral communication, reading, writing and media literacy skills that students need for success in secondary school academic programs and in their daily lives. Students will analyze literary texts from contemporary and historical periods, interpret and evaluate informational and graphic texts, and create oral, written and media texts in a variety of forms. An important focus will be on the selective use of strategies that contribute to effective communication. This course is intended to prepare students for the compulsory Grade 11 university or college preparation course.

A list of the course expectations can be found at: <http://www.edu.gov.on.ca/eng/curriculum/secondary/english.html>

Assessment and Evaluation

To promote student success, ongoing assessment and feedback is given regularly to the students. A variety of assessment and evaluation strategies are used in this course. Expectations are evaluated based on the provincial curriculum expectations and the strands outlined in the ministry document.

The four categories of achievement are: Knowledge and Understanding, Thinking, Communication, Application. These categories help guide the creation of assessment and evaluation tools.

Each student's final mark will be in the form of a percentage grade based on their achievement in the English Strands:

Writing	21%
Reading and Literature Studies	21%
Oral Communication	14%
Media	14%

The breakdown of the final mark is as follows:

Term Evaluation	70%
Final Evaluation	30%

The final Evaluation will be completed during the final 6 weeks of the course and may include a variety of summative activities including an exam, a presentation, a seminar, or an essay or another writing assignment.

In addition to students' performance in the achievement categories, students will also be assessed on their performance in the following learning skills:

- Responsibility
- Organization
- Independent Work
- Collaboration
- Initiative
- Self-Regulation

For specific policies on assessment and evaluation, and academic honesty, please refer to School Procedures in the student agenda.
