Item	Information/Action	Responsibility/ Communicate with
1. Any Other Business (AOB)	Matt expressed interest in exploring a hot lunch program at Brock. Awareness of new models at Real Food for Real Kids, which provide options for a 2-day cycle vs. 5-day cycle. More cost-effective option for most parents, and may garner more support.	CF/VT to explore vendor options available through TDSB and report back.
2. Funding Request Proposals – Vote	given low attendance of parent members at this meeting, delay vote for next meeting	VT to get more details from teachers on proposals with limited information
3. Parent Reaching Out Grant – (JA/CF)	Cecile, Jess and Tyler recently met to discuss ideas for submitting an application to the Parents Reaching Out (PRO) Grant. Feedback from teachers and parents on what is of interest or useful. Toronto Public Health provides workshops for free, so will look at utilizing this option as well.	JS and CF will submit a more formal proposal at the next meeting.
4. Heritage Languages Update (CF)	Recent meeting with Council Chairs from Pauline, Shirley St. to discuss Int. Languages programs at our schools, which all run on the integrated day model. Similar concerns from	CF/SK will continue to update Council as needed.

	parent community. Subsequently met with Trustee Marit Stiles, who agreed to ask the Board for a report on the program, outcomes, models, etc. Council Chairs will discuss the creation of an information brief for parent communities on the program
5. Committee Updates – Fundraising & Rooftop Garden	Fundraising: QSP magazine fundraiser to run again, online only Rooftop Garden – committee is working with the Eco Club at the school. Club will help with clean ups and planting. Some upcoming planting days if anyone wants to volunteer
6. School Update - Staffing (VT)	Victor discussed the staffing model for next year. Large classes for 7 and 8 classes – may result in a 3 rd class in September. Reminder that class shifts are a normal part of operations at TDSB schools. Two additional basketball nets will be added to the playground in the near future.	Will consider what messaging may be helpful to parents in the Fall around classroom shifts. (CF/SK/VT)
