

Oral Language Fun: May 2020

Sunday	Monday	Tuesday	Wednesday	Thursday	Friday	Saturday
					1 Look outside and ask your child "Why is it light outside?"; "Why is it dark outside?"	2 Read The Little Red Hen . Read to a certain point and ask your child what might happen next.
3 Ask your child to guess what they will eat tomorrow for snack, lunch, and dinner.	4	5 In your home language, ask your child questions like, "What would happen if..." (e.g., ...you left ice cubes on the table.)	6	7 Grow a plant with your child. Talk about what you think will happen and what you need to do to care for the plant.	8 Forget to set the dinner table with cutlery. While eating, ask your child "What is missing?"	9 Pretend you are going grocery shopping. Ask your child to predict 3 things that you will buy at the store.
10 	11 Before bed ask your child why it is important to brush his/her teeth.	12	13 Talk with your child about the reasons why we turn the lights off when we leave a room.	14	15	16 During a painting activity, talk about what would happen if you mixed two colours together.
17	18 Victoria Day	19 Put on your rain coat and boots. Ask your child why we wear a rain coat and boots.	20 	21	22 Talk with your child about the reasons why we need a good night sleep.	23 Practice recognizing emotions using the iPad app "Feelings with Milo" by Doonan Speech Therapy.
24	25	26	27 Ask your child "Why do we keep some things in the fridge and some things in the cupboard?"	28	29 Read a story in your home language and ask your child why the character(s) feel that way.	30
