Mark your calendars! The meeting for the year 2023 will be held on the 4th Wednesday of each month from 6:30 pm to 7:30 pm:

26th April 2023

26th May 2023

Meeting Minutes:

Message from the Principal

- Staff numbers and teacher's allocation are being prepared for the next school year. The Number of students is at 215, and 18.5 teachers.
- The realignment process starts in September, where new classes are added or teachers be added/removed.
- For the library, allocation has not yet been received as well as the school staff allocation.
- School council members can suggest their inputs towards the school model and can reach out the principal. He shall share the parameters to them directly.
- Class room set up notification will be sent and the draft is being prepared. Parents can request 2 kids to be in same class, only if parents of both students agree. The Request will be taken into due consideration before finalising the list.
- The roof of the school is under renovation and expected to be completed in a few months

Fundraising events

- Cookie dough fundraiser is planned for 3rd April during Easter. Aastha confirmed that 75 orders were received. It will be delivered to the school and distributed near the gym.
- Book Bazaar update: Tentative date to be decided shortly.
- Spring fair updates – Subcommittees have been formed, and more volunteers are needed. Currently, there are 14 members and activities are in full swing. Regular meetings are being taken place separately to focus on the spring fair.

Other updates

- The next school meeting in April will be held in the school in person.

The meeting ended at 7:15 pm.
