Cameron School Council Meeting Minutes

April 8, 2014 - Cameron P.S. Staff Room - 7:00 P.M.

3. After School Clubs

There is support for the possibility of afterschool clubs being explored. At this time more needs to be looked at regarding the exact policies. Currently there is active participation in the lunch time clubs offered.

4. After School Care

There has been 61 people show interest in the after school care program. A registration will be provided to parents, with the anticipation that 2 classes will be run for before and after school care of kindergarten students.

5. Spring Fair

A communications plan was agreed upon as a good idea. More help is needed regarding the silent auction and class baskets, although some good traction has been made with local businesses and individuals.
