Please review the character trait Perseverance with your child - See reverse

June 2022

PERSEVERANCE:
IF AT FIRST YOU
DON'T SUCCEED,
TRY, TRY AGAIN

Your child is involved in learning activities designed to develop good character and help children make good choices. Our focus this month will be on PERSEVERANCE.

What does perseverance mean to you?

Your child can show perseverance by:

- Sticking to a task, even though they want to give up.
- Wanting to continue with something they are finding hard to learn.
- Setting achievable goals and celebrating when they are met.

Questions to discuss with your child:

- What does it mean to persevere?
- What can you do when you want to give up?
- Why is perseverance important and what are some of its rewards?

Projects to do together:

- Talk about and agree on a family commitment motto. Decide on a family motto related to perseverance.
- Make a list of achievable goals, including personal goals, family goals, and school-related goals.
- Help your child set achievable goals and assist them in achieving them.
- Discuss a role model and how they have persevered to achieve their goals and dreams.

Encouraging perseverance in your child:

- Encourage and praise your child to persevere, even when they want to give up.
- Reflect periodically on your child's personal, academic, and social goals and whether these goals are attainable.
- Discuss the importance of planning, prioritizing, organizing, and managing time as strategies to achieve goals.
- If your child exhibits perseverance, let them know that you have noticed and are proud!
