

Celebration of Music - December 13, 2018

This year's celebration was the result of tremendous collaboration of many students and staff. Thanks to the vocal music ensembles, the strings, instrumental and jazz ensembles, the Filipino club choir and production crew for their combined efforts.

Thanks to Ms. Neumann and her IDC class for the promotional materials and for recording the magical event.

Thanks for Mr. Fraser for his support preparing for the event, Ms. Ng for her musical accompaniment, Mr. Lamont for the baritone voice, Ms. Burnip for the incredible support with production crew and of course Ms. Hao and Ms. Simas for their passion and dedication with the music department. For a small (but growing) music department, the level of performance is outstanding! The efforts and dedication of our students is beyond compare. Thank you for a magical performance.

Culminating Activities

We have entered into the last 3 weeks of classes in the semester. Students are beginning the important work of showcasing their demonstration of curricular expectations in a variety of forms. Regular attendance and participation are expected. Culminating tasks are as important as examinations and students must be in attendance when these tasks are scheduled.

Markbook Printouts

Students will be provided with Markbook printouts this week. Please be sure to ask for them from your students. Please make note of any tasks that have not been submitted! In many cases, it is not too late to submit missing work. These printouts will include work that has been produced over the course of the semester.

Staff Meeting - Late Start on Tuesday, December 18
