

This calendar highlights secular and creed-based observances and holidays, significant events and celebrations, public holidays, and other important dates. These may be considered when planning educational events, tests, exams and other activities.

NOTE: This calendar should not be used as a list of dates for creed-based accommodation. Accommodation requests must be made formally and determined on an individual case by case basis subject to the operational procedures of the Toronto District School Board regarding creed beliefs, practices, and observances.

This calendar is not meant to be comprehensive or exhaustive and every attempt has been made to ensure its accuracy. Please note the Days of Significance Calendar is currently under review. Until the review is completed, no changes will be made to the current calendar.

NOTE: Days of Significance/holy days may vary a few days before or after the indicated date due to incompatibility of calendars from the Western Gregorian Calendar, moon sightings, time zones, changes by government or ecclesiastical declarations, source website updates or date reporting conflicts between websites, etc.

NOTE: In some cases, dates indicated in the websites may not concur with dates indicated in this document and are intended for holy day or secular holiday descriptive purposes only.

For the most accurate dates reflected in the years 2023-2024, refer to the calendar information contained on the page itself.

¹⁹ The Toronto District School Board recognizes Children's Mental Health week between Monday, May 06 and Sunday, May 12, 2024

²¹ Mid-Sha'ban occurs in approximately the middle of the Sha'ban observance. This date is sometimes disputed.

²² Annunciation of the Blessed Virgin Mary the celebration of the feast is transferred to a different date if it falls on a Sunday of Lent, during Holy Week, or during the octave of Easter, the Church considers Masses for the Sundays of Lent, any time in Holy Week, and any time from Easter through the Sunday after Easter (Divine Mercy Sunday) to be so important that even this Marian feast cannot replace one of them. In 2024 the date is transferred from 25 March to 08 April, 2024.
