

Online Resources Two – March 2020

Hello IPS Families

Below are several new online resources that have been collected as additional learning activities while at home. We are currently reviewing the Learn At Home portal and below are some of the initial ideas to investigate. Stay well 😊

Regards,
Scott Woolford
Principal

Ministry of Education Learn At Home:

The Ministry of Education has launched a new website to help students in Grades K – 12 learn at home. The website provides students with supplementary learning resources to practice math and literary skills during the closure of all public schools.

TDSB Student Learning Resources:

The TDSB also launched an online resource page to support continued learning. The TDSB site supports the Ministry of Education's Learn at Home initiative and includes a variety of resources that cover a range of grades and subjects. We know these are challenging times for students and families and we are committed to working to support you during this unprecedented interruption to student learning.
