What will we study in Grade 12 French?

- Media: We'll watch, create, and analyse different types of news media, discuss bias in reporting, the role of the press, and how to identify fake news
- Novel Study: We'll read an entertaining and moving novel La Route de Chlifa.
- Grammar: You'll sound super smart in all your discussions once you're able to differentiate between all the different past tense, and talk about hypothetical situations in the past, present, and future.
- Movies: Of course we'll watch some amazing movies and TV shows from Canada, Europe, and beyond!
- How to continue your French studies: We'll learn about university programs in French and other programs outside of formal schooling including some programs that are free (the government may even PAY YOU to study French)
