

Grade 10 Keyboard

AMK 201

Grade 10 Keyboarding

This course emphasizes the creation and performance of music at a level consistent with ANY level of piano playing experience. Students can take this course as a beginner, intermediate, or advanced piano player. Students will develop musical literacy skills by using the creative and critical analysis processes in composition, performance, and a range of reflective activities.

Creating and Performing

Students will use practical application of skills and knowledge of theory as they relate to theory, performance and composition.

Students will learn a variety of piano repertoire.

Reflecting, Responding, Analyzing

Students will reflect, respond and analyze the repertoire studied in class. They will play music suited to their abilities and needs.

Students will demonstrate an understanding of how performing, creating, and critically analyzing music has affected their personal growth as a musician.

Foundations

Students will develop an understanding of the theoretical concepts within the music that we are studying in class.

Students will develop an understanding of musical history and various forms of music from around the world.