

Transportation Technology

Gr10 - TTJ20

Prerequisite - None

This course introduces students to the service and maintenance of vehicles, aircraft, and/or watercraft.

Students will develop knowledge and skills related to the construction and operation of vehicle/craft systems and learn maintenance and repair techniques.

Student projects may include the construction of a self-propelled vehicle or craft, engine service, tire/wheel service, electrical/battery service, and proper body care.

