

Program Information

About the Pre-Advanced Placement Program:

The Pre-Advanced Placement Program at Lakeshore Collegiate Institute provides enriched courses in Science and English for students entering grades 9, 10 or 11 in September 2020. Pre-AP classes are challenging courses that are suitable for students with strong independent learning skills and high motivation, including those identified as Gifted. These courses focus on the Ontario curriculum while building mastery and skills required to succeed on Advanced Placement exams written in the grade 12 year. All students who are interested in the academic challenges of university-level courses should complete a Pre-AP application. Please see lakeshorecollegiate.ca or apcanada.collegeboard.org for more information about AP courses.

Application Requirements:

All students applying for the Pre-AP Program are required to submit a completed application, copies of his/her two most recent report cards, a confidential letter of recommendation from a community member, and a completed optional attendance sheet.

Application Deadline:

All applications are to be submitted on Friday, January 31, 2020 at 3:45pm. Please submit all application materials to Lakeshore CI Student Services. Late submissions WILL be considered subject to availability of space.
