KINDNESS AND CARING

"Don't wait for people to be kind, show them how." (Author Unknown)

Your child can show kindness and caring by:

- Demonstrating these attributes toward themselves and others, including family, friends, and pets.
- Being aware of others' feelings without teasing or using put-downs.
- Helping someone who is having a difficult day.

Questions to discuss with your child:

- How do we show kindness and caring toward each other in our family?
- What other things could we do to show kindness and caring toward our family members?
- What kinds of things can we do to show kindness and caring toward our friends and community members?
- What does it mean to be kind and caring to animals?

Projects to do together:

- Engage your child in being kind and caring toward others by reflecting on their behavior and identifying their acts of kindness.
- Write thank you messages to those who have shown kindness and caring toward your child/family.
- Do something that shows kindness and caring for someone.

Encouraging kindness and caring in your child:

- Show your child the importance of being kind and caring by displaying kindness and caring to others.
- Expose your child to the power of kindness through random acts of kindness toward people, animals, and the environment.
- Read and discuss media stories that depict acts of kindness and caring.

Thank you for supporting our Character Development program.
