Morrish P.S. Online Art Show Reflect and Respond Activity

If you created a piece of artwork, this is your chance to reflect upon the process:

What is one thing you could improve on next time, if you were asked to create that same piece of artwork?
What was the most challenging aspect of creating your artwork? How did you overcome the challenge?
J
f you looked at the pieces of artwork in the showcase, this is your chance to respond to /hat vou observed:
what you observed: What was your favourite category? What did you notice as you scrolled through that type of
·
What was your favourite category? What did you notice as you scrolled through that type of
What was your favourite category? What did you notice as you scrolled through that type of
What was your favourite category? What did you notice as you scrolled through that type of
What was your favourite category? What did you notice as you scrolled through that type of artwork?
What was your favourite category? What did you notice as you scrolled through that type of artwork?
What was your favourite category? What did you notice as you scrolled through that type of artwork? Why do you think the artwork has been categorized by technique and organized by grade?
What was your favourite category? What did you notice as you scrolled through that type of artwork?
What was your favourite category? What did you notice as you scrolled through that type of artwork? Why do you think the artwork has been categorized by technique and organized by grade?
What was your favourite category? What did you notice as you scrolled through that type of artwork? Why do you think the artwork has been categorized by technique and organized by grade?