Monthly Workshop Series for Black Parents

The Black Foundation of Community Networks is hosting a monthly workshop series for Black parents. The first session is Friday, November 13 at 7 p.m., titled I Am Focused, offers parents scheduling tools and techniques to get your family focused and ready for success. An open discussion will follow the formal part of the workshop.

These free, virtual workshops are open to all Black parents, but are designed especially for those with younger children.

Please share this information widely with your school community. Registration via Eventbrite (<https://www.eventbrite.com/e/bfcn-friday-focus-parent-forum-workshop-1-i-am-focused-tickets-127278075149>) is mandatory in order to participate. A Zoom link and further details will be sent to all those who register. For more information or to share accessibility needs, please contact us at info@bfcn.ca or 416-566-2731

Virtual Open Houses and Information Sessions (for grade 8 students)

To help you make an informed decision when choosing a school, TDSB schools will host virtual open houses and information sessions (live or pre-recorded) for parents/guardians and students between November and January.

Learn everything you need to know about our incredible variety of schools, programs and courses. Please note that some schools are hosting “live” virtual open houses that families can join in real time, during the specified date and time. Some schools have pre-recorded information sessions that you can view at any time by clicking the link provided.

If you have questions about a specific school or open house, please contact the school directly for more information.

Note: Please check this page regularly, as schools will continue to post information about virtual open house dates/times and available pre-recorded information sessions <https://www.tdsb.on.ca/openhouses>
