YOUNG INNOVATOR BOOT CAMP & SHOWCASE

Challenges of the Next Millennium: How will the need for clothing, personal transportation, food, virtual communications, and health be met in Year 3000? Current technologies and solutions will be obsolete.

i2H FEEL™ Young Innovator Boot Camp and Showcase is an experiential learning opportunity that provides students with a real world application of an entrepreneurship mindset and creates a forum for mentorship and knowledge exchange.

- 3 days intensive boot camp experience that culminates in a pitch showcase competition
- Promotes an entrepreneurial mindset that acknowledges uncertainty, limited resources and empathy to manage the challenges of today's world
- Students will be working in teams and develop original solutions to define their start-ups in year 3000
- Students will be guided on the use of tools for team building, idea generation, business model generation canvas, user insight generation, rapid prototyping, and pitching
- Conducted by University of Toronto Hatchery Founder and Alumni
