

AP Exams 2020 at York Memorial Collegiate

Welcome, York Memorial Advanced Placement students. Firstly, we would like all of you to know how proud we are of all of our students for their dedication and commitment towards their learning. This has been a very difficult time for all and we want to congratulate you on how well you have handled yourselves. If you are interested in writing one or more Advanced Placement exams this year, we would like to wish you luck and let you know how proud we are of you. We have included this year's schedule and some important information below. Please contact christopher.vujacic@tdsb.on.ca or mark.harding@tdsb.on.ca ANYTIME with any questions at all regarding the writing of these exams.

The College Board is going to email you directly with your testing information. What to do right now:

1. Click here to check your MyAP account to make sure you have a good personal email address - College Board said that sometimes their mail goes to junk mail in your email account, so if you use your personal email, it should go through to your regular inbox.
2. Make sure your AP teacher has your personal email address.
3. Try logging in to your MyAP account to make sure you are able to get in - if needed, request a password reset.
4. Once you log in, make sure you have the correct school code (826887) and an accurate email address and name spelling.
5. Check the schedule below to find your exam times, and put those dates on your calendar and set reminders for yourself.

Taking the AP Exam:

- Each exam is designed to be taken at home
- Taking a photo of handwritten work will also be an option (but not recommended)
- Students can use any device they have access to, including a computer, tablet, smartphone (personal computer is the recommended choice if possible)
- Coming in late April: information and video demonstrations on how to access the testing system on test day

It is certainly an interesting time to be taking Advanced Placement exams, but by doing so you are becoming part of York Memorial's AP history! York Memorial Collegiate will be paying for every student's FIRST AP exam so do us proud. If you are writing more than one exam we will arrange for payment following the writing of all of your exams. Once again, good luck with the entire exam procedure and feel free to contact any of us at any time.

Sincerely,

York Memorial's Advanced Placement Team.
