

Canoe Landing Facility

1. What will the new facility include?

- Jean Lumb Public School will serve 550 children from Kindergarten to Grade 8.
- Bishop Macdonell Catholic Elementary School will serve 550 children from Kindergarten to Grade 8.
- Canoe Landing Community Recreation Centre.
- Canoe Landing Child Care Centre will serve 52 children from birth to four years old.

The new facility will be located at the corner of Fort York Boulevard and Brunel Court, next to Canoe Landing Park.

2. Who is building Jean Lumb Public School?

The City of Toronto, the Toronto District School Board (TDSB) and the Toronto Catholic District School Board (TCDSB) are collaborating to build the multi-use community facility next to Canoe Landing Park.

3. Who is paying for the construction of the school?

To finance the construction of this new facility, revenue was collected from development projects in the Railway Land area. The City of Toronto, TDSB and the TCDSB entered into an agreement where the City will continue to own the land and the two school boards will hold leases.

4. Who do I contact if I have construction-related questions?

Construction-related inquiries may be directed to:
Suzanne Cooke-Wooland, Senior Project Coordinator, at suzanne.cooke-wooland@toronto.ca.

Child care

12. How many child care spaces will be available at Canoe Landing Child Care Centre?

The City of Toronto will be building a child care centre within the multi-site facility. Canoe Landing Child Care Centre is scheduled to open in the fall of 2019 and will serve 52 children from birth to four years of age. For more information about the new Canoe Landing Child Care Centre, please contact Anne Farrell, Toronto Children's Services District Consultant at 416-397-1677 or Anne.Farrell@toronto.ca.

13. Will there be a Before-and-After School Program at Jean Lumb Public School?

Prior to the opening of the Jean Lumb Public School, the TDSB will assess interest in a Before-and-After School Program for Kindergarten to Grade 6 students through a survey process. This process will include assessing interest from families whose children will be transferring to Jean Lumb PS in September 2019, and new Kindergarten to Grade 6 students. More information will be shared with families when school registration begins.
